Exploring the Art and Science of Sound Healing

Sound Reiki Certification Program

"The Gift is Within You"

Sound Reiki is a powerful Sound Healing methodology using the quantum physics of sound. Sound Reiki accesses multiple dimensions by projecting electro-tonal frequencies using only the voice. Created and facilitated by Catherine Varga and Heather Hannan, Ascension Grand Masters, this advanced experiential program provides an in-depth knowledge of ascended Energy Healing using Divine Sound and Light Energy.

The certification program is made up of Level 1 (Basics), Level 2 (Intermediate) and Level 3 is a Master Level. Each level is fun, interactive and concentrated, incorporating hands on healings as well as theory. Successful completion of each level is essential for moving to the next one.

Through the understanding of universal laws and sound healing techniques you will create a "toolbox" of self-healing methodologies to identify and eliminate limiting beliefs or blocks, created in this life or a past one. These blocks anchor themselves in the physical, mental, emotional and spiritual bodies and can create disease in your health and well-being and block your sacred path of enlightenment.

This dynamic program is open to all those with an open mind and heart and who believe in a higher power, a Divine Source, no matter what they call it. The program is well suited for those who have studied traditional REIKI and who wish to ascend their skills.

Sound Reiki Certification Program - Level I

Level I is a basic introduction to the Divine Sound and Light Healing Energy that we will use to initiate a self-healing and self-awareness process. This program is intended to create an awareness of self and your Higher Self, through an understanding of your connectedness to the Divine Oneness in all things.

Level 1 is a concentrated program taught over a weekend.

Topics will include:

- how energy flows and what blocks it
- energy cords
- inner children and their impact on your view of yourself and others
- the power of intention
- how imbalanced energy can manifest in dis-ease of the body, mind and spirit
- finding your healing voice, trusting your own sound sensitivities
- applied kinesiology otherwise known as muscle-testing
- chakras and their relationship to your health and well being

You will learn more about who you are, your beliefs, where they are rooted and how they help you or hinder you. Once these limiting aspects are revealed, we will work on some basic healing techniques to remove them and what you can do to continue to increase the Divine Light Energy which is the root of your manifestation energy, creating more harmony and balance in your life.
